9:am - 5:pm: Show opens to spectators at Oakdale Park

9:am: The Mini-Merc Treasure Hunt begins. Hidden somewhere in Oakdale Park a three inch long, scale model 1950 Mercury is sitting, watching you. If you find it "DO NOT PICK IT UP!" Instead go to the official DJ of the show, KOTO (King of the Oldies), and tell him you think you found it. If you are right, then your name will be put into a drawing to be done on Sunday. Clues as to where it is will be given out by KOTO through out the weekend. Hint! To make your chance of winning better, DO NOT TELL ANBODY WHERE YOU KNOW IT IS. The winner will receive $50.00 cash. Contest open only to officially registered entrants of the Leadsled Spectacular

10:am - 5:pm: On site Tiki Carving by artist Paul McNutt. If you like something he's carving, it's for sale.

10:am - 4:pm: Personal appearance of movie, & TV star, Paul LeMat, and "Miss Hurst Golden Shifter" Linda Vaughn at Oakdale Park! These hotrodding legends will be meeting and greeting their many fans throughout the weekend, and signing and selling autographed souvenir photos. Feel free to stop by and visit.

10:am: "KKOA Godzilla Garage" opens shop. Watch professional California kustomizers, Bill Hines from TV's "Monster Garage", and rising kustom star, Brad Masterson chop the top on a car. Can these pros get it done in three days? Only the Shadow knows for sure. Lady Hotrodders! Downtown shopping is just a few blocks from the park, and the newly opened water park is open to kids of all ages.

10:am: Backyard Boys Garage the three mad lads, Jerry Dillinger, Paul Langley, and Everett Reynolds, of the midwest will attempt to chop a '51 merc in three days. Can they do it?

10:pm - 3:pm: Stage entertainment begins.

1:pm - The Leadsled Spectacular Pin-up Beauty Contest on stage.

4:pm: Announcement of the "KKOA Achievement of Vendor Koolness!" Given to the vendor that demonstrates the coolest displayed booth, and most beneficial product, or products for the kustom & hotrod enthusiast

4:30pm - till dusk (around 9:pm): "Run What'ya Brung Drag Racing" begins at E. Crawford Park (aka: The old Salina Airport). Now a city park w/ball fields on it, and a 1/8th mile drag strip. Directions! If leaving from Oakdale Park, turn right go one block, turn right and go (wind) about three blocks S. to Crawford St, turn left and go east approx. 4-5 miles. Watch for a golf course on the right, turn south (right) on Markley street that runs along side the golf course and go a quarter-of-a-mile and start racing.

KKOA will be giving $500.00 to the "Most Spectacular Drag Champ?" Everyone who drags has a chance to win. The winner is not determined by the fastest, or lowest E.T., but for the most outstanding demonstration of sportsmanship racing, and crowd reaction. KKOA Officials will be watching throughout the evening to decide the winner that'll be announced on Sunday at awards.

Also all professional drag strip cars (gasser's, funny, slingshots, etc), are welcome to race, and be eligible to win the drag champ title & cash. Plus they invited to show & shine all three days at Oakdale Park.

Only officially registered entrants of the Leadsled Spectacular will be eligible to drag race. There are no classification's, no timing lights, and no christmas tree. Just Rocky and Jerry on the starting line, and Frank on the finish line. It's just like the good ol' day's, and your chance to match it off w/whoever rolls up next to you. So be ready to look kool as you pass down the return lane before 1,000's of cheering fan's.

There's only one rule that'll be strongly enforced!!! DRAG RACE SAFELY, or risk the enjoyment of your event entry. Otherwise don't be a knuckle-head.

To finale out the races, around 8:30 (dusk), the Dragsters will fire and have a "Zoomie Fire Fest" in mid-track that'll litterly ignite your magneto. Ya' got'ta see this!

9:00pm: A kool Hangin'-Out Party cranks-up at Calvin's Custom Shop on N. Santa Fe St., (just before the railroad tracks). Spectacular entrants are invited to stop by and enjoy lots'a free eats, drinks, and music . You'll dig this place.

9:15:pm: Don't miss this inside the Convention Room of the Mid America Inn (headquarters motel)! Do you remember the matinee serial's kids looked forward to back in the 40's & 50's, just before the feature movie played at local movie house's? In that same vain we're proud to show a 10 minute George Barris movie narrated by Adam West of TV' Batman fame, and hosted by "King Barris" himself.

9:30pm: Stay where you're seated, it's time for the KKO A TONITE SHOW, and "herrrr's Jerry", hosting a kustomized version of the late great Johnny Carson "Tonight Show." It too is being presented in the Convention Room of the Mid America Inn (headquarters motel), complete w/desk, divan and stage.

And, just like Johnny, there'll be live musical acts by "Mr. Showman", Al Nelson, and the lovely Lisa Irion. Lisa will give us a taste of "Cher" that'll we'll see at the Ultimate Doo-Wop Show Saturday eve.

After Jerry rambles through his monolog, his guest line up will be the beautiful Linda Vaughn, Paul LeMat, (aka: John Milner) and the KKO A Hall of Fame members, and the Drag Racing Legends of the show. Plus, they'll be handing out their personal pick awards to deserving winner's.

A salute of the 2010 "American Kustom Legend" winner will happen (we're keeping the winner a secret till showtime). Also on tap is the presentation of the 2010 Hall of Fame nominees, with the announcement of the two inductee's into the KKO A Hall of Fame. It'll be a jam-packed two hours like no other we've done.

All event entrants is welcome to come in, cool-off and enjoy the show. Dessert's, popcorn and drinks from the Bomb Bay Club will be available, and outside a burger wagon will help curb the hungries.

After all this, you can grab a late-nite-bite at one of the 24-7 restaurants near by, or take in lawn chair tales of yesteryear at area motel parking lots, knowing that tomorrow is another giant day of hotrodding.

SAT. -

8:am - 1:pm: Entrant registration at the Mid America Inn Convention Room. After 1:pm, registration moves to Oakdale Park. Just tell the the ticket booth that you want to register a show vehicle. A KKO A official will handle the duty.

9:am - 5:pm: Show opens & closes to spectators at Oakdale Park

9:am: Mini-Merc Treasure Hunt! (check Fri. schedule for details)

9:am - 5:pm: The Elden Titus Model Kemp Spectacular. Meet the giants of the model car & truck world. Located beside the KKO A event T-Shirt booth, don't miss this unbelievable display of the finest model's in the country. Each and every one vying for the coveted super star awards, the Elden Titus Concept Design Award, & the ultimate goal, the "777 Custom Crown "Model" Champion" to recognize the "Top Model in America", $500.00 will be given in awards. Decisions to determine the winners will be done in part by the K.C. Salmers, Jerry & Tammy Titus, and by the pros of full size kustomizing, the KKO A Hall of Famer's at the show (Barris, Starbird, D'Agostino, Winfield, Hines, etc.) So, take your time and look closely at the design and detail of these fantastic models. You'll be amazed. The KKO A would like to salute Model Cars Magazine, and Kool Rides Rod & Custom Accessories for their sponsorship support. And, the greatest model car club in America for hosting this amazing Spectacular of small scale wonderment! The one and only, hard working K.C. SLAMMERS. Saaaalute.

10:am - 4:pm: The (6) "KKO A Hourly Awards", given hourly for the "Most Spectacular Headlights", "Tailights", "Pin Striping", "Scallop, or Flame Job", "Car Club Colors", and "Hubcaps on a car or truck". To be eligible to win, all you need to do is be at Oakdale Park during show hours and relax. KKO A officials will be scouting the park looking for winner's. On every hour, they will pull up to the winner, sit down the kool award plaque stand in front of the kemp, place the nice size "KKO A Most Spectacular Headlights, etc." award plaque on it, and leave it for a hour for everyone to check it out. Then it'll be picked up, the Award Plaque given to the owner (or placed in the kemp if not there), and moved on to the next winner. Good luck, competition is stiff, but regardless of the outcome you're a winner by just being here.

10:am - 4:pm: Appearance of Hollywood/TV Star's Linda Vaughn and Paul LeMat. (See star bio on Fri. schedule)

10:am - 5:pm: Tiki Carving by Paul McNutt (don't forget, you can buy what you see being carved)
